

2017 Red Ribbon Week

October 23 - October 27

Monday, Oct. 23 – Show your unity against drugs and alcohol by wearing dress code red shirts

Tuesday, Oct. 24 – Show your ability to resist drugs and alcohol by wearing dress code black shirts to “black out” drugs

Wednesday, Oct. 25 – Show your commitment to your future without drugs and alcohol by wearing school appropriate professional clothing (suits, dress shirt and tie etc.)

Thursday, Oct. 26 – Let’s “sock it to drugs” by wearing our craziest, school appropriate socks

Friday, Oct. 27 – Wear your Red Ribbon shirt or Spirit Day shirt to celebrate the end of Red Ribbon Week. Participate in the 5K to show your commitment to your drug and alcohol-free health!

During Red Ribbon Week, homerooms will also be competing to design and paint an anti-drug and alcohol message for Dr. McBreen’s parking spot!
